Rice Quota for Andhra Pradesh

@@1833. DR. NARREDDY THULASI REDDY : Will the Minister of FOOD be pleased to state :

(a) whether Government have accepted to increase rice quota from the central pool to Andhra Pradesh; and

(b) if so, the details thereof ?

THE MINISTER OF STATE OF THE MINISTRY OF FOOD (SHRI TARUN GOGOI); (a) and (b) Yes, Sir. Allocation of rice to States/Union Territories for distribution through P.D.S. is made on the basis of a number of factors like stock position in the Central Pool, likely procurement during the year, relative needs of the various States, etc. The allocations for P.D.S. are supplemental in nature and, therefore, it is not possible to meet the entire demands of the States/Union Territories. Allocation of rice to Andhra Pradesh will be made keeping in consideration these factors.

Working of Public Distribution System in the Country

1837. SHRIMATI KAMLA SINHA :
DR. BAPU KALDATE :

Will the Minister of FOOD be pleased to state :

(a) what is the raio of supply of imported foodgrains and indigenously procured to the Public Distribution System;

(b) what on an average is the monthly supply of foodgrains to PDS as against their requirement particularly to the scarcity hit State;

(c) what was the gap in the demand and supply of foodgrains to PDS in 1991-92 and anticipated gap during 1992-93;

(d) whether Government are of the view that with the low procurement of foodgrains by the official agencies, the PDS system is likely to collapse; and

(e) if so, what steps are contemplated by Government to reform the PDS system in the country ?

THE MINISTER OF STATE OF THE MINISTRY OF FOOD (SHRI TARUN GOGOI) : (a) There is no ratio fixed for supply of imported foodgrains and indigenously procured foodgrains to the Public Distribution System.

(b) The average monthly allocation of foodgrains to States/UTs for PDS is approximately 9 lakh tonnes of rice and 8 lakh tonnes of wheat during 1992. This includes special allocation of 30,000 tonnes of wheat to Bihar as drought relief, 5000 tonnes of wheat and 5000 tonnes of rice to Uttar Pradesh as flood relief and 2,000 tonnes of rice to Kerala as flood relief. The allocation of foodgrains from the Central Pool are made on a month to month basis, to various States/UTs keeping in view the overall availability of stocks in the Central Pool, relative needs, market availability and other related factors. These allocations are only supplemental to the market availability and are not expected to meet the entire demand of the States/UTs.

(c) There was no gap in procurement and supply of foodgrains in the Central Pool during 1991-92. During 1992-93 the shortfall in wheat requirement would be met through imports.

(d) and (e) In order to maintain supply of foodgrains to States/UTs for PDS at reasonable levels, steps have already been taken to import required quantity of foodgrains.
